WARNING:

This is an official Court Order. If you disobey this Order, you will be subject to arrest and prosecution for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this Order.

ADDITIONAL WARNINGS TO DEFENDANT:

Violations of this Order should be reported to a law enforcement agency, not the court. Both parties must notify this Court if an action for dissolution (divorce), separation, annulment or paternity/maternity is filed. This is NOT a parenting time (visitation) or custody order. You must file those requests separately in Superior Court. If you disagree with this Order, you have the right to request a hearing which will be held within 5 to 10 business days after your written request has been filed in the Court that issued this Order. Nothing Plaintiff does can stop, change, or undo this Order without the Courts written approval. You must appear in Court to ask a judge to modify (change) or quash (dismiss) this Order. Even if the Plaintiff initiates contact, you could be arrested and prosecuted for violating this protective order. If you do not want the Plaintiff to contact you, you have the right to request a protective order against the Plaintiff. However, orders are not automatically granted upon request. Legal requirements must be met.
